Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007

(c) PROTECTING A PERSON SUBJECT TO A SUBPOENA.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO A SUBPOENA.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

SCHEDULE A

Subpoena in a Civil Case to LCN, Inc.

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply throughout these requests, regardless of whether upper or lower case letters are used:

- A. "LCN, Inc.," "You," and "Your" refers to (1) LCN, Inc. and any parent, subsidiaries and divisions, (2) any successors and predecessors thereto, and (3) any and all persons or entities acting or purporting to act on LCN, Inc.'s behalf, including but not limited to all past and present employees, officers, directors, agents, consultants, partners, affiliates, associates, attorneys or representatives thereof.
- B. "Defendants" refers to (1) defendant Alcatel Lucent Enterprise ("Alcatel") (previously known as Alcatel Business Systems) and/or Genesys Telecommunications Laboratories, Inc. ("Genesys"), (2) any successors and predecessors thereto, and (3) any and all persons or entities acting or purporting to act on Alcatel and/or Genesys's behalf, including but not limited to all past and present employees, officers, directors, agents, consultants, partners, affiliates, associates, attorneys or representatives thereof.
- C. "Microsoft" or "Plaintiff" refer to (1) Microsoft Corporation and any parent, subsidiaries and divisions, (2) any successors and predecessors thereto, and (3) any and all persons or entities acting or purporting to act on Microsoft's behalf, including but not limited to all past and present employees, officers, directors, agents, consultants, partners, affiliates, associates, attorneys or representatives thereof.

D. “Relating to,” “related to,” or “relate to” means and includes concerning, reflecting, alluding to, mentioning, regarding, discussing, bearing upon, commenting on, constituting, pertaining to, demonstrating, describing, depicting, referring to, summarizing, containing, embodying, showing, comprising, evidencing, refuting, contradicting, and/or supporting.

E. “Referring to,” “refers to,” or “refer to” means and includes relating to, reflecting, alluding to, mentioning, regarding, discussing, bearing upon, commenting on, constituting, pertaining to, demonstrating, describing, depicting, concerning, summarizing, containing, embodying, showing, comprising, evidencing, refuting, contradicting and/or supporting.

F. “Concern” or “concerning” means relating to, embodying, containing, comprising, constituting, indicating, referring to, identifying, describing, discussing, involving, supporting, reflecting, evidencing, or otherwise in any way pertaining directly or indirectly to.

G. “Document” is defined broadly to be given the full scope of that term contemplated in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26 and 34, and includes all tangible things, all originals (or, if originals are not available, identical copies thereof), all non-identical copies of a document, all drafts of final documents, all other written, printed, or recorded matter of any kind, and all other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated if necessary, that are or have been in your actual or constructive possession, custody or control, regardless of the medium on which they are produced, reproduced, or stored (including without limitation computer programs and files containing any requested information), and any recording or writing, as these terms are defined in Rule 1001, Federal Rules of Evidence. Any document bearing marks, including without limitation, initials, stamped initials, comments, or notations not a part of the original text or photographic reproduction thereof, is a separate document.

H. “Person” shall mean any natural person or any business, proprietorship, firm, partnership, corporation, association, organization, or other legal entity. The acts of a Person shall include the acts of directors, officers, owners, members, employees, agents, attorneys or other representatives acting on the Person’s behalf.

I. “Communication” means any contact, oral or written, whereby information of any nature is transmitted or transferred, including without limitation, a person(s) seeing or hearing any information by any means and any document memorializing or referring to the contact.

J. “Entity” means, including without limitation, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, association, governmental body or agency, or persons other than a natural person.

K. “Accused Product” or “Accused Products” means and includes all of (1) Alcatel-Lucent’s unified communication systems, products used with such systems, and components thereof, including but not limited to all models and versions of the OmniPCX Enterprise, OmniPCX Office, and OmniTouch Unified Communication software and/or application suite (including but not limited to My Assistant, My Phone, My Teamwork, My Messaging), My Instant Communicator software and/or application suite, other unified messaging systems, and all components thereof; and/or (2) Genesys’s call center products, including hardware and software applications, and components thereof.

L. “Product” means a machine, manufacture, apparatus, device, instrument, mechanism, appliance, assemblage of components/parts (either individually or collectively), process or method which are designed to function together electrically, mechanically, or otherwise, to achieve a particular function our purpose, including those offered for sale, sold, or under development.

M. “Any” and “all” shall be construed to mean both any and all.

N. The words “and” and “or” shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively, whichever makes the request most inclusive.

O. The singular form of a word should be interpreted in the plural as well, and vice versa.

P. “Present Lawsuit” means the action styled Microsoft Corp. v. Alcatel-Lucent Enterprises and Genesys Telecommunications Laboratories, Inc., Civil Action No. 07-90-SLR, currently pending in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware.

INSTRUCTIONS

A. This subpoena calls for information (including any information contained in or on any document or thing) that is known or available to you, or in your possession, custody, or control, including all information known or available to your attorneys, agents, representatives, or any other person acting or purporting to act on your behalf or under the direction or control of you or your attorneys, agents, representatives or investigators.

B. You are to provide full and complete responses to the following requests, after conducting a diligent and thorough investigation into all information within your possession, custody, or control.

C. You are to quote each request in full immediately preceding the statement of any answer, response, or objection thereto.

D. For every objection to a request on the grounds of privilege, answer the request with such non-privileged information as is responsive, including the date and the sender and recipients of the document, and then provide the basis for Your claim of privilege and all facts and circumstances related thereto.

E. If no documents are responsive to a particular request, You are to state that no responsive documents exist.

F. If a document is in a language other than English, you should provide that document. If a document is in a language other than English, and an English translation exists, You should provide both documents.

G. All documents requested are to be produced in the same file or other organizational environment in which they are maintained. For example, a document that is part of a file, docket, or other grouping, should be physically produced together with all other documents from said file, docket, or grouping, in the same order and manner of arrangement as the original.

H. Because these discovery requests are continuing under 19 C.F.R. § 210.27(c), you remain under a duty to supplement or amend any response herein.
